

Effective Learning: Embedding Study Skills in the Mainstream Classroom

This is a two day workshop by Cat Heale which is being hosted at Richmond School
Fri 19 Sept—An event for teachers & teaching assistants
Sat 20 Sept—A workshop for dyslexic students and parents

Saturday 20 Sept : 9.30am—12 noon : Yrs 6—8

Note-making, Creative Story Writing and How to Spell Really Well!

One of the most essential study skills for Yrs 6-8 is to get into the habit of making really effective, quick, memorable, creative and multi-sensory notes. The students will be shown and practise this skill. They will also be shown how to write a creative story that they will be really proud of, learn how to present it well and lastly how to be a much better speller than they thought they could be.

Saturday 20 Sept : 1.00 pm—4.00 pm : Yrs 9—12

Note-making and interval learning for GCSEs and A Levels & Academic Writing

Students will look at how to make a wide variety of creative, reflective, active multi-sensory, memorable notes by hand and on the computer. A framework for writing academically will be explained and given to the students

Both workshops are restricted to 12 places — a limited number of places are still available. To book a place please contact Jenny—
